Sunder Ride Club, at 8 P. M.
Mounted Club, at half-past 8 P. M.
German Ride Club, at 8 P. M.

Auction Sales This Day.

J. Fraser Mathewes will sell at half-past 10 o'clock, at his office, oil painting and chromos.
Litch & Bruns will sell at 10 o'clock, at No. 7 Thomas street, furniture, &c.; and at 5 P. M. at the store of W. G. White, & Co., corner King and Beaufort streets, jewelry, &c.
Lowndes & Grimbail will sell at 10 o'clock, at No. 5 Legare street, furniture, silverware, &c.
William McKay will sell at 10 o'clock, at his store, furniture, army tents, &c.
Miss Drake will sell at 10 o'clock, at his store, boots, shoes and hats.

OUR PRICES CURRENT.—We especially invite the attention of our merchants to THE NEWS PRICES CURRENT, issued this morning. Made up with the utmost care, and handsomely printed with entirely new type, it forms, with the business card of the house forwarding it, the most attractive and welcome weekly commercial circular that can be used. Price, for ten copies or more, with business cards, two and a half cents per copy; single copies five cents.

GERMAN RIFLE CLUB.—An important meeting of this club is called for this evening.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.—The Rev. Dr. Dixon, of Augusta, will preach at the Citadel Square Baptist Church this evening.

SPARTANBURG AND UNION RAILROAD.—By reference to our advertising columns it will be observed that the summer schedule on the above named road will go into effect on the 29th inst.

THE UNION DEAD.—Shaw Post No. 1 of the "Grand Army of the Republic" will engage in decorating the graves of the Union dead, buried at Magnolia Cemetery, on Tuesday next, May 30th, at 4 P. M.

THE CAROLINA DRAMATIC CLUB; of this city, will have given several entertainments to which the public was invited without any charge, now appeal for aid, and propose to give a performance at their own hall, No. 51 Society street, to which an entrance fee will be collected. They will play, on that occasion, a piece that has not been put on the stage in this city since the war.

THE VIRGINIA SAILS FOR THE QUAKER CITY. At a late hour last evening this fine iron steamship, under the command of Captain Hunter, proceeded to sea with a large and heavy cargo, consisting of over 250 packages of naval stores, cotton, &c. We notice the increase of business by this line, and have no doubt that during the coming year the total figures will largely exceed the one just passed.

HO! FOR THE REGATTA!—Savannah is to have a grand regatta next week, which this year we learn will be a splendid affair. Many of our citizens will doubtless be desirous to go and witness this handsome and enlightening exhibition. We are glad, therefore, to find in the advertisement to-day by Superintendent C. S. Gadsden that the Savannah and Charleston Railroad will give excursion tickets—that is, only one fare will be charged for coming and going. This arrangement goes into effect May 27th, and will be good for five days.

SUPREME COURT, COLUMBIA, MAY 24.—The Court met at 10 A. M. Justice Chief Justice Moore, and Associate Justices Willard and Wright.

The case of Dabney, Morgan & Co. vs. the president and directors of the State of South Carolina was resumed. The parties interested were represented as follows: Messrs. McCord and Lord for defendants; Messrs. Magrath and Whaley for plaintiffs; Messrs. Baint and Simons for the loan stock; Messrs. Campbell and Hayne for the loan bonds.

CLUBS AND STARS.—James Galliard, an old thief, arrested on the charge of vagrancy, was sent to the House of Correction for twenty days. Though willing to turn his hands to anything, Galliard had made geraniums his specialty, and is implicated in all of the numerous thefts of these plants which have occurred lately.

Emma Harrison and Nancy Lawrence, two colored girls, arrested for fighting and raising a disturbance in Warren street near St. Philip, were brought before the Mayor, who sentenced Nancy to ten days in the House of Correction. Emma was returned over to her father.

MAINTENANCE FINE.—A passenger for traveler, who was arrested by the detectives for having a gun loaded with his person, was yesterday brought before Judge T. J. F. Schreder. The evidence showed that the prisoner had a machine with which he could detect and draw forth the silver from the pockets of his victims. The judge, in his previous bad character, he was sent to jail for an unexpired term of three days, at the end of which time he will be sent to the House of Correction for having a gun loaded with his person.

EARLY CLOSING MOVEMENT.—Many inquiries have been made why the gates of the City Hall Park are closed as early as they are of the evening. On Wednesday evening a pedestrian, who naturally took this pleasant out-of on his way up Meeting street, from Broad, at about half-past seven o'clock, found the gates to the Meeting and Chalmers street side securely locked, and returning whence he came, arrived at the Broad street gate just in time to escape being caged by the locking of this one also. The closing of the gates is a matter of precaution, but 7.30 P. M. seems rather early at this season of the year. If it is not making too bold, we would ask why close the park at all?

SHARK FISHING.—The lines which are set daily on North Atlantic wharf are doing a good business, and afford much excitement and sport to persons in the vicinity. Yesterday morning two heavy sharks were hauled in. Each of them measured seven feet, and contained eight juvenile sharks, seven, when released by a Cieseaner operation, paddled around in a lively manner in a bucket of salt water. The two larger ones were quickly divested of their sand-paper covering, and being cut up into steaks, were divided among the not over fastidious workmen on the wharf. It keeps on, the eating account for the season between the sharks and humans in Charleston harbor will present a large balance in favor of the sharks.

MATTER OF MONEY VS. MATRIMONY.—Fanny Fields, a white woman, was arrested yesterday morning by Officer Lovitt, on the charge of stealing $300 in Daniel Nolan. The prisoner, who is a natural blonde, first attracted the attention of Nolan, a bold soldier boy, while she was promenade-nading King street, arrayed in all the charms and bright colors of spring. Following the object of his regard with devoted eyes, the warlike lover soon found means of gaining an introduction and paying his addresses. After a short season of courtship, in which the fair one showed symptoms of having repeatedly travelled over the same track, the happy day was named and the minister engaged. On the eve of the marriage the cretulous avowal opened his heart and his purse, and after a joyous night awoke next morning with an aching void in the latter. The fair character had down, and the sum of $300 in greenbacks had disappeared from the pocketbook. The striking coincidence preyed upon the mind of the soldier, and happening to mention it one day to an officer, he was not blundered by Cupid's flame, the arrest of the blonde was the consequence. She stoutly denies the charge brought against her, and with all the fury of "love to hatred turned," she no longer "term of reproach towards her late lover for 'going back' on her in this style. The money has not yet been recovered, but the prisoner is held for examination.

MILITARY MOVEMENTS.—A detachment of soldiers arrived in Newberry during the past week, numbering twenty men, and under command of Lieutenant Miller. This is not the first visit of Lieutenant Miller, he having been on special service there before. His uniform courtesy and gentlemanly bearing, says the Newberry Herald, have won for him the respect of the entire community.

Lieutenant Charles B. Hinton, with his detachment of fifteen men, for some weeks posted at Sumter, has been relieved by Captain T. J. Lloyd, commanding Company F, 15th U. S. Infantry, with Lieutenants C. R. Paul and J. H. Todd.

SELLING CIGARS.—Pedro Cabrero and Carlos Socia were arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer Burke, and lodged in the Detective office, charged with selling cigars by the sample without a city license. When arrested the prisoners had ten bunches of cigars about them, branded "Recommendables," which they were offering at $50 per thousand. They were unable to speak English, and an amusing colloquy ensued at the Detective office while the parties were being examined. The officer who arrested them swore that they were playing off, and that they spoke English on the way to the Guardhouse. With the aid of an officer who had some acquaintance with the Spanish language, and in this way arranged themselves understood, and in this way arrangements were made by which they were released upon giving good security, in the sum of $50, for their appearance this morning.

THE CHARLESTON CHARITABLE ASSOCIATION. This association, for the benefit of the free school fund, which has been chartered by a regular act of the General Assembly of the State of South Carolina, held a preliminary meeting last evening, and was inaugurated by a handsome collation, attended by several prominent gentlemen of the city. Major J. P. Horbach, the gentleman of the institution, and general agent of the company, presided, and the affair passed off in the pleasantest and most enjoyable manner. At the conclusion of the entertainment the manner of the raffish or drawing from the wheel was practically illustrated to those present by the officers. The simple and equal method recommended itself at once to the lookers-on. The drawing will commence at 12 M., on Saturday, when a full and complete exposition of the details will be presented to the public in the advertising columns.

RADICAL WARD MEETINGS.—At the several ward meetings held on Wednesday evening last, the following delegates were elected to the convention, to meet next month for the purpose of electing a central committee, to conduct the canvass in the approaching municipal election:

Ward 1.—W. S. Taft, T. J. Mackey, John Nesbit, J. J. Young, P. F. Foy, H. L. Berry.
Ward 2.—E. W. Mackey, Primos Green, Jr., R. D. Pepper, J. Morrison, George Holmes, M. Smith.
Ward 3.—W. Ristig, J. W. Lloyd, Robert Mayers, R. E. Doogan, A. F. Farrer, T. Aiken.
Ward 4.—Hon. George W. Clark, William Fields, James Walker, T. Osborne, N. S. Robertson, J. D. Robertson.
Ward 5.—Wm. Glover, Robert Howard, Jr., Wm. Grant, Peter M. Frost, William Miller, William Oliver.

Ward 6.—A. McLeod, J. D. Price, H. G. Minott, S. Dickerson, H. B. Arson, S. G. Ballard.
Ward 7.—J. Grant, John Houston, John Taylor, E. P. Wall, Jr., J. A. Moshington, Abram Doogan.

Ward 8.—Edward Weston, Norman Montgomey, Francis S. Lee, Abram Schank, Benjamin Berry, James L. Harrison.

In Ward No. 6, we understand, they had quite a lively time in electing a certain alderman. We cannot see exactly how the Bads of that borough came to put out such a shining laminary. However, it is none of our business.
